

GET THEM IN THE GAME WITH COMPETITIONS

Boost results against any goal by harnessing your team's natural competitive instinct with SalesScreen's proven competition solutions.

OBJECTIVES

In sales, time is money. That's why we made sure that creating competitions and blitzes could be done in minutes. Manually creating and updating spreadsheets for your sales team competitions is a tedious and inefficient use of a manager's time. Plus, it makes it hard if not impossible, to motivate middle performers without access to progress updates or real-time data to help keep your team on track.

SOLUTIONS

With SalesScreen, you can create and launch competitions in minutes with just a few clicks. Our end-to-end automation of Competitions means your sales managers aren't wasting valuable time pulling spreadsheets or worse, waiting on another team to pull data for you. Automate progress notifications and real-time updates at any level of your revenue team on any metric you want with the option to choose from dozens of fun and engaging templates like our newly designed Lottery Competition to motivate middle performers, or Bracket to maintain momentum over a longer period of time.

WHAT YOU GET

Competitions in minutes

Automate competitions and get real-time insights into your teams performance without the spreadsheets. With a variety of different templates and themes, Competitions are engaging but never boring.

Head-to-Head Battles

Instead of competitions coming from the top, individual sales reps can now take on each other and create head-to-head competitions. They create the goals. They create the terms. The whole company gets the rewards.

Feeling lucky?

Use our Lottery competition to add the element of chance and give your entire team the opportunity to win big.
